

Conflicting Forces in Japan

Liberalism in the 1920s

- Greater democracy
- Retreat from aggressive expansion
- Uneven distribution of wealth
- Revolt against tradition by youth in cities

Militarism in the 1930s

- Depression causes unrest.
- Return to aggressive expansion
- Militarists in power
- Public opinion supports conquest of Manchuria.
- Attacks on China